

Summer is nearly over and here we are, squat, green vaguely fragrant, huddling on top of Roosevelt Hill watching the garbage man steal our newspaper. It's bee a good summer, baxically. The transmitter has favored us with its blessings more often than not, programs have generally been found and played almost on time, engineers haven't used The Fugs for fill music, and although the money hasn't been overflowing, it's usually there when we desperately need it. One of the city council candidates who was here, after he finished recording his commentary, said, "You know, if I just had some money, I could win this damn thing." I'm going to vote for that guy, because I know exactly how he feels.

5:30pm CAP'N BALTIC'S BOP STOP - Receiving the overwhelming adulation of his many fans for being on weekly now, Cap'n Baltic tonight presents LHR/LHB.

7:00 COMMENTARY - Wayne Larkin, Seattle City Council Candidate

7:30 miscellaneous slip n' slide time

- 7:45 MUSIC OF BULGARIA
- 8:00 WHATEVER BECAME OF BILLY HALOP? - And who, you are asking, IS Billy Halop? Does the name Leo Gorcey, or perhaps Huntz Hall, strike a familiar note? Well, Billy Halop was the Dead End Kid (and later the Bowery Boy) who always got the girl because he was the only one who didn't look like he'd been run over by the 3rd Ave. El. In this program from KPFA, Richard Lamparski drops the names and Hallop fields them nicely.
- 8:30 SUNDAY - The Roachdale Radio Newtork's brilliant (a-hem) effort has been moved up a tad because this will be a repeat of the final show of the season which was an hour long. It was also performed live, which may account for all the mush-mouthing going on. The Disney Reunion is visited, graduation is saluted, and Dulcet Dave tries an old-man voice with questionable results.
- 9:30 CLASSIC JAZZ - Mike Duffy plays, and oft-times explains or gives interesting information about great old jazz.
- 10:45 OPEN TIME
- 11:00 EAR TO THE GROUND - Host Lowell Richards plays jazz and rock and engages in platter patter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

- 9:00am WILL JOE MOONEY BE THE P. I.'S MAN-OF-THE-YEAR IN SPORTS?
- 11:00 Commentary (R) Wayne Larkin
- 11:30 Whatever Became of Billy Hallop? (R)
- 12:00 Sunday (R)

==+==+==+==+==+==+==+==+==+==+

We wish to express great thanks to DISCOUNT RECORDS for the lending of many records, specifically those used by Steve Brown on JAZZ FOR A SUNDAY AFTERNOON and those ethnic music records scheduled throughout the guide. Tell 'em KRAB sentcha.

Programming folk would very much like to have a late-night program of classical eastern music (Indian, Japanese, Vietnamese, etc.) However, we have nobody to do it. If you have an interest, (preferably overwhelming) in that type of music, or know of someone who does, give-us a call. Thanks.

If you ever send any money to KRAB (and we hope you do), please enclose your complete return address with your ZIP code, and an explanation for your sending the money.
